

EMBASSY OF JAPAN
OSLO

In cooperation with the Oslo Chamber of Commerce, the Embassy of Japan in Norway has great pleasure in inviting you to a lecture by

Professor Kenji Hattori

Faculty of Modern Chinese Studies, Aichi University, Japan

“Economic Relations between Japan and China
Challenges and the Response of Japanese Enterprises”

The Chinese Economy

How does a China specialist in the neighbouring country Japan analyse the current situation and future potential of the Chinese economy?

The Japan-China Economic Relationship

The volume of trade between the two countries is 90 times as big as it was 30 years ago, and Japan has been China's largest trading partner since 1992.

Japanese Experiences with Investment in and Trade with China

Why have Japanese investments in China been successful?
How has Japan fostered trade with China?
What lessons can Norwegian companies learn from Japan?

Thursday 8 November 2007

from 17:00 to 18:30

Oslo Chamber of Commerce

Sommerogate 1, 0255 Oslo

Professor Hattori teaches several subjects, including 'Industrial Structure of China' and 'Studies of Contemporary China', at Aichi University. He has published many books and articles with titles such as 'Research about Sustainable Development in the East Asian Area' and 'Japan-China Relations in the Asian Era'. He analyses China from many angles, including political, macroeconomic and cultural ones. Professor Hattori has done practical business work for the Japan-China Economic Association and the Japan-China Investment Promotion Organisation to stimulate investment, and has lived many years in China.

The lecture will be given in English. Refreshment (Sushi) will be served after the lecture.
